

A Hymn for St. George the Martyr

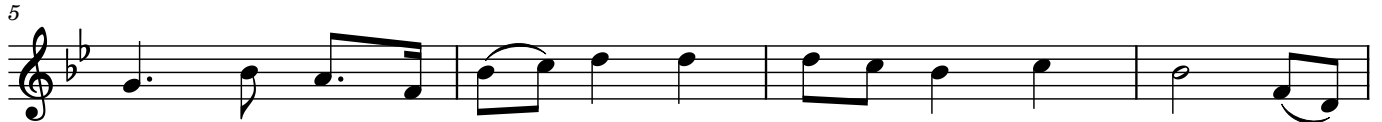

Patron Saint of England (23rd April)

Rev Brian Pickett

Thaxted (Gustav Holst)

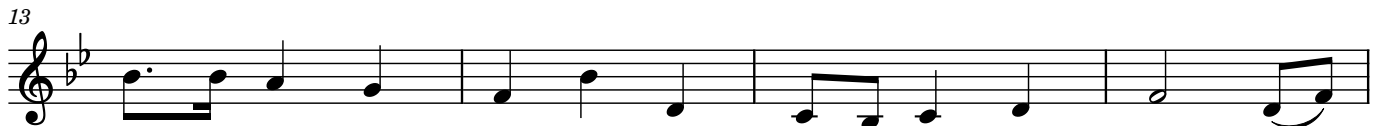

1.O_ Ri - sen Lord, your glo - ry shines forth from day to day, Re - 2.O_ Sav - iour, by your ri - sing you con - quered sin and strife, Our.

splen - dent in the saints. as they fol - low in your way. And_ spring has come; cre - a - tion is new - ly raised to life. Your.

here we ce - le - brate one who_ won the mar - tyr's crown; En - cha - mpion George de - fea - ted the_ dra - gon of our fears, With.

ligh - tened by your Go - spel, he tram - pled e - vil down; Con - free - dom for the cap - tive and cour - age for our tears. By_ foun - ding hate and vio - lence, with faith and love a - flame, Your_ sa - cri - fice for o - thers let faith grow in our land, Your.

no - ble George de - fied_ death and bo - dly o - ver - came.
fruit - ful vine - yard let us be, your joy - ful pi - grim band.